

THE ECKERT FAMILY not only works together on a day-to-day basis, but the family also gathers together for meals. Whether it's a holiday, birthday, anniversary or just to relax after a long hot day of peach or apple season, meal time is a special time. It is our time to catch up.

At our Country Restaurant, we hope you and your family and friends enjoy our tradition of sitting down together and passing the bowls around the table. 🍴

FAMILY STYLE DINNERS

Our Family Style Dinners are served with all the fixings... Beginning with our famous fried biscuits and delicious apple butter, Eckert's house salad, and then bowls of mashed potatoes, green beans and sweet corn are served. Pass the bowls around the table for the whole family to enjoy!

*Alvin's Eckert's wife, Ella Heinrich, was the oldest of nine children and learned to be a wonderful cook.
We have fond memories of seeing her in her big kitchen in the house on the hill, slicing the fruit for her pies and rolling out homemade noodles. Grandma Ella and Grandpa Alvin were great role models for all of us growing up. We are proud to share their love for this great farm land and home cooking with you.*
